

TUNE

Bring TUNE to your event or conference

MEDICAL-GRADE SOUND BATH ON DEMAND

Because your nervous system is in charge of everything, when it performs, you perform.

Your audience will realize the result of a calibrated, well-maintained and finely-tuned nervous system.

The experience of tuning is a resistance-free reset that only requires your attendees to lay down and allow the technology to do the rest. TUNE is an offering that authentically delivers a full body and mind reboot by re-balancing the nervous system and reducing stress in real-time, everytime. TUNE is a wellness-as-a-service solution that allows your attendees to perform at their highest potential with less stress.

How it works

The TUNE is an instrument that calibrates the nervous system by combining medical-grade vibrations and neural music.

STEP 1

Your client will select their session from the iPad next to the TUNE.

STEP 3

In 15 minutes, they'll experience vibrations emitted from the TUNE that are perfectly mixed with the neural music on the headphones. A bliss-like experience.

STEP 2

They'll lay down, place headphones on and get started! It's that easy – no technical support required.

STEP 4

Once the session ends, they'll stand up feeling refreshed, focused, and ready to jump back into their day.

The TUNE Experience

What the body experiences in a minute-by-minute breakdown

MINUTES 1-3

The body settles into a pattern that allows it to absorb the vibrations. The more often you TUNE the faster this becomes.

MINUTES 3-7

The nervous system switches from the sympathetic (fight-or-flight) to the parasympathetic (recovery).

MINUTES 7-8

'Happiness-endorphins' are released as the body floats into a deeper recovery state. The body is totally at rest.

MINUTES 8-15

The hemispheres of the brain are balanced, the body enters a repair state and the brain wave state enters high gamma (flow state).

HOURS LATER

Feel light and joyful with heightened senses. Experience deep sleep and wake up refreshed.
